WILEY

Blue Ocean Strategy

A book giving a method and a push for the creation of entirely new markets / value propositions

2. Today

Design a data centric value proposition for a gym center.

1. How can I provide a service of value to the customers of the gym club, using data in a central way?
2. Describe the avatar of your customer
3. Use the Value Proposition Design map to create a value proposition

What you should do:

1. Work alone or in groups on designing an avatar and a value proposition
2. Upload a pic of your avatar and value proposition on a public place / public link
3. Prepare a 5 minutes pitch
